Starting the conversation

Many financial professionals have found success starting conversations with clients about personal income protection and then moving to business solutions. That shows how wide open the disability market opportunity can be. After all, almost everyone in the working population needs to protect their income, especially those who:

- Are age 30 to 55
- Earn at least $40,000 per year
- Work at least 20 hours per week
- Work in occupations with little to no manual duties

How to get started

Most people have never been approached about disability insurance and don't know they need it. Whether you're talking to individuals, business owners or their employees, it's important to establish the need for coverage. Your job is to help them along the "path to purchase"—from awareness to buying (and then referring you to others!).

Use:

- ✔ Visuals to illustrate the need
- ✔ Needs-based language
- ✔ Materials that are about clients and the benefits they receive

Rather than:

- ✘ Wordy documents
- ✘ Technical jargon
- ✘ Lists of policy details

How you can help

What is disability insurance?

It helps protect your income if you're too sick or hurt to work. The monthly benefits help you pay your bills while you recover.

Why do I need it?

We certainly hope your good health continues, but also realize we can't predict the future. Plus, disabilities are more likely to be caused by an illness rather than an injury. Preparing today for the unexpected is a smart decision.

Don't I have that through work?

Coverage through your employer is a great start, but it may not be enough to cover your existing expenses, plus the new ones you may incur if you become disabled.

Is it affordable?

Individual disability insurance from Principal is flexible to meet different needs and budgets. If you'd like a better idea of how much coverage you need and how much it costs, visit principal.com/calculatemyneed.

How does it work?

If you become too sick or hurt to work, Principal will pay you monthly benefits "like a paycheck" to help cover everyday expenses.

Looking to open doors with business owners?

Offer our complimentary services:

- Informal business valuations — Help owners find out what their business is worth. Having a current value can help with planning discussions.
- Buy-sell review — Clients with buy-sell agreements can make sure their agreement is current and has proper funding in place.

A buy-sell solution for single business owners.

Our one-way buy-out funds a transfer between an owner and a key employee. (Policy HH794¹ only)

Understanding underwriting

As a financial professional, you play a big role in the IDI underwriting process at Principal. When submitting a case for underwriting, share with us as much information about the client as you can, focusing on these three key areas:

1 | Occupation

The occupation class determines your client's premium amount and maximum monthly benefit amount. Job duties, rather than title, are key when classifying an occupation. Consider managers. Are they managing in an office with general office duties and no manual labor? Or are they managing at a shipping company, but the majority of their time is spent lifting boxes and using heavy machinery? Those with no manual duties would get higher occupation classes with lower rates.

Working with business owners?

Principal underwrites a business owner's occupation differently than the competition. We consider additional factors, such as:

Income

Number of employees

Number of years in business

Owner duties

2 | Income/financial background

Disability insurance is meant to replace a portion of lost income, while providing motivation to return to work. We'll need to review their financial documentation to ensure we're not giving them too much or too little coverage.

3 | Medical history

Having an understanding of basic conditions can set expectations when you help a client apply for coverage. For instance, if your client has one of these conditions, proceed with underwriting, but set the expectation that the coverage could be "rated/ridered*" or declined:

- Anxiety or other mental/nervous conditions
- Back related conditions
- Carpal tunnel syndrome or arthritis
- Cancer
- Emphysema
- Heart attacks
- Hepatitis
- Kidney disease
- Obesity
- Pancreatitis
- Seizures or stroke

*Means a client could get coverage, but for an additional cost than originally presented or could have an exclusion for a certain condition added.

Want to make underwriting easier?

Check out our simplified offering that helps streamline the application process. It features:

- Limited underwriting
 - No routine medical requirements³
 - No financial verification⁴
- For Individual DI, benefit amounts up to:
 - $6,000/month issue limit
 - $10,000/month participation limit (excluding group long-term disability insurance)
- An accelerated underwriting decision once the application and online Part B are completed and received

Why online Part B?

Your clients are able to complete Part B—the medical portion of the application—online. This simplifies the process and can speed up policy issue.

Working in the employee benefits market? Check out our multi-life underwriting programs:

“Basic” multi-life

Available when any three employees with a common employer purchase coverage.⁵ Employer involvement is not required. Simplified and full underwriting are available.

Guaranteed Standard Issue (GSI) program

A solution geared to groups of employees who don't need to provide medical requirements. Discounts are available based on the number of employees participating. Employer participation is needed.

Fallback GSI

Allows employees to qualify for the maximum benefit available based on underwriting. If an employee doesn't meet underwriting qualifications, a GSI benefit is still available. Discounts are based on the number of employees participating.

Bonus: When using multi-life underwriting for DI insurance, at least a 20% discount is available when three or more employees purchase coverage.⁵ And, in certain states, spouses can buy coverage at a discount, too!

For additional details, check out the employee benefits profile (JJ1726).

Closing the sale

Here are some best practices for closing IDI sales with clients:

Prepare for meetings

- Run several proposals to offer choices. Three seems to be the “magic” number to be helpful, but not overwhelming.
- Have the needed forms with you, as well as the phone number for Part B and medical examiners. Learn more about what you need to bring. See our administration guide (JJ1858).

Want to reduce your paperwork?

Try our electronic application system — eApp. It lets you submit business online. It makes things easier for you and your clients. Learn more about this tool with our Q&A (JJ2186).

While meeting with clients

- Ask if anything’s changed since you last met.
- Confirm they’re ready to proceed.
- Explain the benefits of the policy, not just the product features or riders. Keep it simple.

Make sales

- Ask for the sale: “Do you want to proceed with the application?”
- For clients hesitant to buy or with objections, address those concerns.
- If they’re ready, walk them through the application.

Close the discussion by asking if they have any questions about the policy or what happens next. Explain that you’ll submit the signed application and should get a response from Principal in a few days.

Key success factors

Make these behaviors part of your everyday routine:

- Hone your presentation style. Develop a conversation plan and practice it to sound more natural. The more you sell disability insurance solutions, the easier it becomes.
- Provide options. Showing different price points gives clients the power to choose.
- Share real life stories. If you don't have a personal story, we offer several real-life testimonials that show how having disability insurance can make a big difference in people's lives. (advisors.principal.com -> Product -> Approaches)
- Share the promise being made. Your clients are purchasing the promise that Principal will be there when they experience the unexpected.

Most important: Buy a DI insurance policy yourself. Owning disability protection helps you talk to clients with confidence and conviction.
