Reopen application for advisors

Advisors can reopen a closed application from Partner Dashboard by clicking on the closed application:

1. Once the case has been opened, click the “Enable Edit” button. The “Reopen” button will be enabled.
2. Click the “Reopen” button. A pop up window will show, asking the advisor to select a reason for why the application is being reopened.

Reopen: application eligible

- Applications are determined ineligible for reopen as per the criteria on slide 13. The following message will be displayed when the application is reopened successfully. There is no limit for multiple reopens.

The screenshot displays the 'Application Tracker' interface. At the top, a blue banner indicates 'You are now editing this case. Done Editing'. Below this, a status bar shows '47 Days Pending' and 'Reopened'. The 'Application Tracker' progress bar includes steps: 'New', 'Application Started', 'Application Signed', 'Further Evidence Required', and 'Incomplete'. A 'Requirements' sidebar on the left lists options like 'Case Details', 'Contact History', 'Application History', 'Inbound/Outbound Comms', 'Amend Application', and 'Decision'. The main area shows '0 of 2 Requirements Received' with a table:

Requirement	Status	Owned By	Ordered	Received	Reviewed	Follow Up
Exam	Not Scheduled	LGA	10/28/21
RTM	Pending	Proposed Insured	10/28/21			10/28/21

At the bottom of the table, it says 'Items per page: 10' and '1 - 2 of 2'. A red arrow points from a message box at the bottom of the screenshot to a larger message box on the right. Both message boxes contain the text: 'The application has been reopened and will be reviewed by an Underwriter'.

If a policy is successfully reopened, a label marked “Reopened” will be displayed:

- Policy status will move to “Further Evidence Required” or “Underwriter Review” based on if there is additional evidence required. If required, an evidence card is generated in “Action Needed” status.
- Once a final decision is made, the “Reopened” label will no longer display.

- When a closed application is reopened for “New Medical Information” or “New Financial Information,” an email will be sent to the advisor notifying him/her to upload evidences.
- After clicking the “Upload Document” link in the email, the advisor will be directed to the “Manage Application” page to enable Edit mode and upload document as displayed in next slide.

Reopen: application eligible

- Advisor can upload documents for reopened application under category 'Application' and subcategory 'Reopened Application' only in Edit mode after Reopen is successful.

The screenshot displays a web application interface for document management. A modal dialog titled "Upload Document" is open, prompting the user to "Select the category of document from the list below." The dialog features two dropdown menus: "Category" (set to "Application") and "Subcategory" (set to "Reopened Application"). Below these are "Browse", "Upload", and "Cancel" buttons. The background interface includes an "Application Tracker" with a progress bar showing stages: New, Application Started, Application Signed, and Further Information Required. A table of document uploads is visible, with columns for Document, Date, Category, Recipient, and Delivery. The table contains several rows of data, including entries for "LGASecure* Information needed for your life insurance application" and "LGASecure* Additional documents needed to re-open application for Keven Buckley".

Reopen: application ineligible

Applications are determined ineligible for reopen if:

- Advisor license expired
- Applicant's age is between 20-60 years at the time of reopen and the application signature date is greater than or equal to 13 months
- Applicant's age is between 61-75 years at the time of reopen and the application signature date is greater than or equal to 7 months
- Applicant's age is above 75 years at the time of reopen
- Application date is greater than 60 days and the applicant's health history has recently changed
- Application was previously declined

Reopen: application ineligible

- A popup window will appear explaining the reason for why an application is ineligible based on the reasons on slide 13. In this sample screenshot, the applicant's age is above 75 years.

The screenshot displays the Legal & General application tracker interface. At the top, there is a blue header with the text "You are now editing this case." and a "Done Editing" button. Below the header, there is a "Reopen" button. The main content area shows an "Application Tracker" with a progress bar indicating the status of the application: New, Application Started, Application Signed, Further Evidence Required, Underwriter Review, Approved, and Withdrawn. A "Reopen" popup window is displayed in the center, with the message: "This application cannot be reopened because the client's age is over 75." The background interface is dimmed.

- If a policy is declined, a label marked “Uninsurable” will be displayed.

A screenshot of the Legal &amp; General application tracker interface. At the top left is the Legal &amp; General logo. A red arrow points to a label that says "Uninsurable" next to a greyed-out application ID. To the right of this label is a "Reopen" button. Below the application ID is a large greyed-out area. The "Application Tracker" section shows a progress bar with steps: New, Application Started, Application Signed, Further Evidence Required, Underwriter Review, and Declined. The "Declined" step is highlighted in yellow. Below the progress bar is a "Requirements" section with a table header: Requirement, Status, Owned By, Ordered, Received, Reviewed, Follow Up. The table content shows "0 of 0 Requirements Received" and a message "No Records Available". On the left side of the interface, there is a sidebar menu with options: Case Details, Contact History, Application History, Inbound/Outbound Comms, Amend Application, and Decision.

Reopen: application ineligible

- If the advisor tries to reopen a declined and “Uninsurable” policy, a popup message is displayed.
