

ePolicy Delivery

Benefits and Process

Ready for your agents to stop chasing paper delivery requirements? With e-policy delivery the agent and consumer can electronically approve and complete policy documents, securely. We're cutting both the time and expense incurred in the paper delivery process, so policies will deliver in minutes, not days.

Benefits

- Secure delivery of policy documents
- Measurable reduction in delivery time for policy documents
- Electronic signature
- Back office, agent and customer retain a PDF of the signed policy
- Customizable delivery option
