

Business Loan Protection

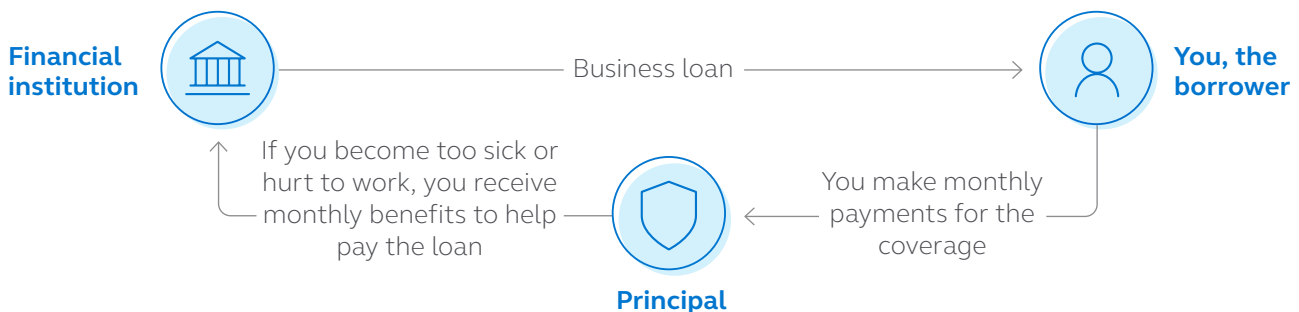

Protect your ability to pay your business loans.

Business loan payments may be one of your largest expenses each month. That's why it's important to have the funds available to make payments on time—even if you're too sick or hurt to work.

The Business Loan Protection rider¹ is available for an additional cost as part of an Overhead Expense insurance policy from Principal®. It helps:

- Protect your ability to repay a new or existing loan. This helps show your financial institution you'll pay them back—even if the unexpected happens.
- Keep your business going even if you can't be there. Staying current on loan payments helps keep your business up and running, employees on the job, and customers coming in.

How Business Loan Protection works

Many types of loans are covered

Business Loan Protection can cover a variety of loans, including those for:

- Buying more computers or equipment
- Expanding your office space
- Building up inventory

What types of loans do you currently have or may have in the future? It's easy—and important—to help protect them and your business if the unexpected happens.
