How I'm paid for my work:

It's important for you to understand how I'm paid for my work. Depending on the particular annuity you purchase, I may be paid a commission or a fee. Commissions are generally paid to me by the insurance company while fees are generally paid to me by the consumer.

Depending on the particular annuity you buy, I will or may be paid cash compensation as follows:

sources, describe:
Fees (such as a fixed amount, an hourly rate or a percentage of your payment), which are usually paid directly by the customer.
If other (describe):

If the amount of cash compensation I receive is a multiple-occurrence amount, the frequency and amount of the occurrence may be stated as a range of amounts or percentages.

You have the right to request additional information from me about the compensation I will be paid for this transaction.

If You would like to receive an estimate of the amount of cash compensation I will receive, and/or whether the cash compensation is a one-time or multiple-occurrence amount, please check the box.

I may also receive other indirect compensation resulting from this transaction (sometimes called "non-cash" compensation), such as health or retirement benefits, office rent and support, or other incentives from the insurance company or other sources.
