- 8 FAMILY INSURANCE AGREEMENT — Policy Form No. 8374 If elected, the Family Insurance Agreement provides term insurance on the lives of the children until age 25, at which time their coverage is convertible to a permanent plan of insurance at a rate of 5 times the children's coverage. Benefit expires at the earlier of Primary Insured's age 65, or the child's age 25. This rider provides decreasing term coverage on the spouse as his/her age increases. Benefit expires at the earlier of Primary Insured's age 65, or the spouse's age 65. Available for an additional premium. Availability varies by state, see rider for complete details.

The acceleration-of-life-insurance benefits offered under these riders may or may not qualify for favorable tax treatment under the Internal Revenue Code. Whether such benefits qualify depends on factors such as your life expectancy at the time benefits are accelerated or whether you use the benefits to pay for necessary long-term care expenses, such as nursing home care. If the acceleration-of-life-insurance proceeds qualify for favorable tax treatment, the proceeds will be excludable from your income and not subject to federal taxation. However, acceleration-of-life-insurance benefits payments may be taxable by your state. Tax laws relating to acceleration-of-life-insurance proceeds are complex. You are advised to consult with a qualified tax advisor about circumstances under which you could receive acceleration-of-life-insurance benefits excludable from income under federal law.

Receipt of acceleration-of-life-insurance proceeds may affect your, your spouse's or your family's eligibility for public assistance programs such as medical assistance (Medicaid), Aid to Families with Dependent Children (AFDC), supplementary Social Security Income (SSI), drug assistance or other public assistance programs. You are advised to consult with a qualified tax advisor and with social service agencies concerning how receipt of such a payment will affect you or your family's eligibility for public assistance.
