Benefits & Features

Total Disability Benefit: Pays the Total Disability Weekly Benefit if the insured person is totally disabled and the elimination period has been satisfied. Benefits will continue while the insured person is totally disabled up to the Maximum Benefit Period.

Benefits will only be paid for one of multiple concurrent disabilities (disabilities occurring at the same time from different causes). Also, a recurrent total disability (a continuation of a prior disability from the same or related cause) will be considered a new total disability if separated from the prior total disability by a period of 180 days or more where the insured person is continuously employed on a full-time basis and not receiving any disability benefits under the policy or riders. A new total disability is subject to a new elimination period and starts a new maximum benefit period. Any other recurrent total disability is considered a continuation of a prior total disability, not subject to a new elimination period nor starting a new maximum benefit period.

Partial Disability Benefit: Pays 50 percent of the Total Disability Weekly Benefit if the insured person is partially disabled and has resumed part-time employment following a period where they were receiving total disability benefits. Benefits will continue while the insured person is partially disabled up to the remainder of the Maximum Benefit Period, but no longer than 26 weeks.

Optional Riders

- § Catastrophic Disability Rider: (not included with Accident-Only policy type): Pays a weekly benefit if the insured is catastrophically disabled and the elimination period has been satisfied. Benefits are in addition to the policy's weekly benefit and continue while the insured is catastrophically disabled up to policy's maximum benefit period.
- § Family Care Rider: (not included with Accident-Only policy type): Pays a weekly benefit after satisfying a seven-day elimination period while the insured person is on family medical leave, as defined by the Federal Family and Medical Leave Act of 1993 (FMLA), to provide full time care for a child, spouse or parent.
- § Retroactive Injury Rider: Pays a lump-sum benefit if an injury causes the insured to become totally disabled within 30 days of the injury, and the insured remains continuously totally disabled until the end of the elimination period.

Presumptive Disability Benefit: Pays the Total Disability Weekly Benefit if presumptively disabled, regardless of the insured person's ability to work or whether they are under a physician's care. The elimination period does not need to be satisfied to receive benefits.

Waiver of Premium Benefit: Renewal premiums will be waived on the first premium due date after the insured person has been totally disabled for the elimination period or 30 consecutive days, whichever is longer. Any premiums paid during this period, which became due after total disability started, will be refunded. Waiver ends when the insured person is no longer receiving Total Disability Weekly Benefits.

Childbirth Benefit (not included with Accident-Only policy type): Pays a lump sum benefit of two times the Total Disability Weekly Benefit, not to exceed $500, if the insured person becomes disabled as the result of experiencing childbirth. Pays in addition to any Total Disability Weekly Benefit received due to complications of pregnancy.

This benefit is payable for a maximum of one child per calendar year. A birth certificate is required for proof of claim. The elimination period does not need to be satisfied to receive the benefit.

Organ Donor Benefit (not included with Accident-Only policy type): Pays benefits on the same basis as any other sickness if the insured person becomes disabled as the result of transplanting an organ or donating bone marrow from their body to another person.

- § Guaranteed Insurability Rider: Gives the insured the option to increase their base policy's weekly by purchasing additional amounts of insurance. Additional amounts have the same benefit period and elimination period as the policy. Increases do not require evidence of insurability and are based on the insured current income and the issue and participation limits in effect on the option date. Premiums for are based on the insured attained age and the current rates. The insured cannot exercise an option if disabled or receiving disability benefits.
- § Return of Premium Rider: Pays a returned premium benefit upon policy cancellation, policy lapse, the insured's death or the policy anniversary following the insured's attained age 65.
- § Stay-at-Home Spouse Disability Income Rider: Pays a weekly benefit if the insured spouse is totally disabled and the elimination period has been satisfied. Benefits continue while the insured spouse is totally disabled up to the rider's maximum benefit period.
